Finally to make things easier at the door at our next general meeting, the sign in sheet will be pre-filled with your details, so all you will have to do is tick that you are present

Activities Officer Gail's Sweet Slice Recipe

125g butter, 1 tablespoon golden syrup or honey, 90g of desiccated coconut, 165g caster (superfine) sugar, 150g self-raising flour, 125g of sultanas (golden raisins) or 1 cup of dates, 1egg lightly beaten.
Preheat oven to 170 degrees C. Grease a 28 X 18cm baking tin and line base and sides with baking paper. Put the butter and golden syrup in a small saucepan over low heat and stir until just melted. Set aside
Put the coconut, sugar flour and sultanas in a large mixing bowl and stir to combine. Add the Butter mixture and the egg and stir until well combined. Pour into prepared tin and bake in the middle of the oven for 25 mins or until golden brown. Slice may sink a bit after cooking. That OK. Allow to cool in the tin, then cut into 3 cm square or similar. Slices can be stored in an airtight container for 3-4 days. Enjoy with a cuppa.

You can connect with Gail at a meeting or by phone or by email marked with Activities to probusclubwyong@gmail.com

Belly Ache Laughs

A father shows up at his daughter's place & finds his son -in-law angrily packing his bags. "What's wrong?" he asks. "I texted my wife that I was coming home today from my golfing trip. And what did I find when I walked through the door? Her making out with Joe Murphy! I'm leaving!" "Now, calm down," says his father-in-law. "There must be a simple explanation. I'll find out what happened." Moments later, he reappears. "I told you there was a simple explanation, and there is," he says.
"She never got your text."
